

A PROCLAMATION DURING A LOCAL DISASTER FOR PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY IN THE CITY OF NACOGDOCHES, TEXAS

WHEREAS, a Public Health Emergency was declared for the United States, and a State Disaster Declaration due to this Public Health Emergency created by the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) was declared by the State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, on March 20, 2020, the Mayor of Nacogdoches, Texas issued a declaration of local disaster for the City of Nacogdoches due to the emergency situation posed by the spread of COVID-19 and advocating that certain emergency protective measures may be taken; and

WHEREAS, over 369 cases of COVID-19 have been detected in the City of Nacogdoches and surrounding County; 37 of which have been identified in the last 4 days; and

WHEREAS, the City of Nacogdoches continues to see a significant increase in COVID-19 positive cases, and the City has been advised by health officials that face masks and social distancing, and the continued implementation of current Texas Department of State Health Services (“DSHS”) recommendations are necessary to curb this increase and prevent the local and regional hospitals and health care providers from being overwhelmed; and

WHEREAS, the Governor’s Executive Order GA-28 signed June 26, 2020 sets forth new requirements and impacts a local jurisdiction’s authority under Chapter 418 of the Texas Government Code currently in effect:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED BY THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF NACOGDOCHES, TEXAS:

SECTION 1. All citizens over the age of ten (10), while in public, are asked to voluntarily wear face coverings that cover their nose and mouth when within six (6) feet of others not of their household and all persons should follow the health protocols from Texas Department of State Health Services (“DSHS”), and practice social distancing while in public within the corporate boundaries of the City of Nacogdoches.

SECTION 2. Businesses are requested to adopt voluntary policies regarding the wearing of face coverings for employees and visitors to such business while inside the business and continue to promote safe social distancing while frequenting Nacogdoches businesses, and continue to follow all Texas DSHS recommendations. Exceptions to the above are anticipated for patrons engaged in eating or drinking while inside a food related business.

SECTION 3. Citizens are further encouraged to avoid participating in social gatherings of 100 or more people and be conscious that they can potentially spread COVID-19, even when they do not have symptoms.

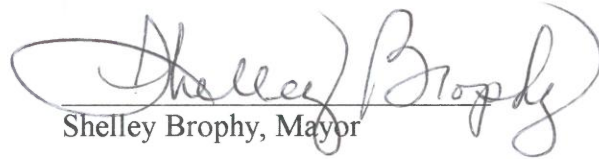

SECTION 4. Consistent with Executive Order GA-28 issued by Governor Greg Abbott, no civil or criminal penalty may be imposed on individuals for failure to wear a face covering. However, in keeping with the Governor's Executive Order, businesses are not precluded from requiring customers to follow additional hygiene measures when obtaining services.

SECTION 5. This proclamation shall take effect at 12:00 A.M. on July 1, 2020 and continue until either terminated by the Mayor or until 12:00 A.M. on July 8, 2020; whichever occurs first.

PROCLAIMED this 30 day of June, 2020.

CITY OF NACOGDOCHES, TEXAS

Shelley Brophy, Mayor
