Library staff will hold a book discussion and remembrance program to commemorate the 20th anniversary of 09/11. Where Were You? Remembering the Events of 09/11 will be held in the Family Room this afternoon at 6:00pm. The featured book is The Day the World Came to Town by Don DeFede.

It recounts the day that dozens of airplanes were forced to land at Gander, Newfoundland's airport and the townspeople who helped them. Canned goods will be collected to benefit SFA's food pantry.

HISTORIC SITES & MAIN STREET - (Staff contact: Jessica Sowell, Community Services Assistant Director)

Our 2nd Thursdays in the Garden event at the Durst-Taylor Historic House & Gardens will be held at 10am on Thursday, September 16th. This week we'll be making two different chicken crafts and talking about the history of raising chickens. Tours of the house and the chicken coop will also be available.

ANIMAL SERVICES – (Staff contact: Theresa Jordan, Animal Services Manager 936-560-5011)

With a couple of weeks left in the year, Animal Services has some very positive numbers to report. The average euthanasia rate for the past three years was over 70%. This year that number has been reduced to 36%! We have completed 1,234 live exits from the shelter, and Animal Control Officers have responded to 1,484 calls. The previous 3 year average for call volume was 836 calls.
