CONVENTION AND TOURISM - (Staff contact: Sherry Morgan, Director, 936-564-7351)

This week Visit Nacogdoches promoted several upcoming events to outer markets. Notable events include the Music & Arts Festival in coordination with the SFA Music Prep Program on Saturday, April 23rd in Downtown Nacogdoches, Sale on the Trail in coordination with the El Camino Real de los Caddo Region on May 6th and 7th from Nacogdoches, TX to Natchitoches, LA, and the Full Moon Concert Weekend from May 27th-29th at Festival Park.

Visit Nacogdoches held "Mid-week Munchies," a mini Nac Snack event on the Downtown Square on Wednesday, April 6th from 11am-2pm. This event was to help the food trucks scheduled for the February 25th event achieve sales since the previous event was cancelled mid-way due to inclement weather.

Sales Director Joanna Temple worked with the Chamber of Commerce to put on the Lone Star Legislative Summit on April 7th and 8th at the Fredonia Hotel.

RECREATION - (Staff contact: Joy Palmer, Recreation Supervisor, 936-559-2960)

Corporate Challenge was kicked off on Monday with a Trivia Night. 3 City teams competed against 6 other companies and one of the City teams took 1st place! On Wednesday, the City team took 6th place at the Axe Throwing event and 4 City teams competing in the golf tournament today. As of right now, CBTX is in first place, with Pilgrims close behind and the City of Nacogdoches in 3rd place. With only 1 point separating the City and Pilgrims, we hope to make up some ground in Golf today! Next week we will have our volleyball and kickball tournaments which we still need for women to join our teams so we can keep our lead. Let HR know if you would like to join the team. We are excited for our upcoming events for the rest of the month. Great job so far!

LIBRARY - (Staff contact: Mercedes Franks, Library Manager, 936-559-2945)

Library staff submitted the annual library report for FY 20-21 to Texas State Library and Archives Commission, the accrediting body for public libraries. The report outlines a library's program activities, circulation, services, and most importantly, their local government's expenditures on the library collection and library operations, which is one factor that determines accreditation. Official notice about accreditation will be issued in July.

The Friends of the Library will host the Literary Ball fundraiser on June 3rd at 6:00pm. The event will feature a dazzling evening of themed hors d'oeuvres, silent auction, trivia and book-themed challenges, and a best book character costume. A hallmark of the evening will be the Webster Dictionary Art Show, which will feature artwork inspired by every letter of the alphabet. All proceeds go to the Friends of the Library to support library programs. Group and individual tickets for ages 19+ years are available from Eventbrite.

HISTORIC SITES - (Staff contact: Veronica Amoe, Historic Sites Manager, 936-560-4441)

We are excited for the Living History of Oak Grove cemetery tour this Saturday, April 9th 10am-12pm. An updated list of the featured citizens has been added to the Nac. Historic sites Facebook page and the Friends of Historic Nacogdoches, Inc. Facebook page. Tickets are $10 and will be sold at the gate. Should be a beautiful day for a cemetery tour!

MAIN STREET - (Staff contact: Jessica Sowell, Community Services Assistant Director, 936-559-2640)

The 2022 Nacogdoches Wine Swirl was Saturday, April 2nd with a sold out crowd of 1200 attendees! The event went smoothly and attendees and wineries had a great night. We want to thank everyone who attended or volunteered to help us have another successful year. All in all, this event helped the Main Street department profit approximately $30,000 to be used on future downtown projects. We are already looking forward to the 2023 Wine Swirl!

POLICE - (Staff contact: Brett Ayres, Sgt Community Relations, 936-559-2618)

The Nacogdoches Police Department has successfully completed the inspection by the Texas Police Chiefs Association as part of their participation with the TPCA Accreditation Program. NPD was the 24th agency in the State of Texas to become recognized as following Texas Law Enforcement Best Practices on February 11, 2010. Since that time NPD has maintained this accreditation by successfully passing each inspection. Currently there are approximately 175 TPCA recognized agencies out of 2,720 total agencies in the state of Texas. Kilgore Police Chief Todd Hunter presented NPD Chief Jim Sevey the department's certification. (Exhibit C)
